

CV Oliver Burgis

Oliver Burgis has been active in the field of receivables management and debt collection since the 1990s. Since the foundation of atriga GmbH in 2003, he has been managing director and is responsible for the areas IT and processes.

After studying business administration at the Friedrich-Alexander-University Erlangen-Nuremberg, he founded a digital agency and has since been involved in IT development and the digitalization of business processes. He already acquired the theoretical foundations for this during his MBA postgraduate studies.
